Bill, I mentioned this Product Co. issue when we chatted on friday evening. If you start at the bottom and work up you get the correct chronology. There was a fair bit of push back but, not surprisingly my last note stopped that.

If you are talking to anybody who would know in the next few days you might ask:

1. Should a search warrant be signed by the magistrate on every page.
2. Is there any issue over a search warrant being executed apparently before the Magistrate signed it - Shara tells me there is about a 20minute difference.
3. Is there an issue that our address was mis-spelt
4. Is there an obligation by the officers to issue a receipt for material removed.

FYI if you scroll down I was right Shara has now become our Corporate Counsel - I am not sure what that means but, it certainly sounds grander than Compliance Officer. It also sounds rather unpleasantly American.
