Dear Mike, conspiracy theories of the kind contracted by Mr. Sinclair is an incurable condition.

Bob has written to you under separate cover confirming his independence in all decisions Unitab. I think these sort of statements need to be supported from both sides of the issue. Any suggestion that Bob is not behaving independently is a direct reflection on my ability in his absence at meetings to reciprocate on issues where there are a conflict.

For the sake of good order, all issues involving, but not exclusive to Unitab, including programming meetings and marketing meetings do not have Bob in attendance. In fact he does not even know of their occurrence or venue. Any reports back on Productuct Co. have up until now, only involved those without conflict. Similarly, on the Queensland Racing Board, Bob removes himself from any involvement with wagering, race field etc. We probably over govern this issue because, it has been a theme that our incurable conspiracists, unimpeded by any intellectual rigour themselves, continue to promote.
